

PROTEST BUSH-ERA+ WAR CRIMINALS When They Converge on NYC September 2011

With the 10th anniversary of 9/11, New York City will be the destination of choice for major U.S. war criminals, including Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld, and John Yoo.

These are the people who brought us torture, indefinite detention, and trillion-dollar wars that have claimed countless Afghani, Iraqi and U.S. lives. They should be indicted and prosecuted for their crimes, not honored as speakers and special guests at symposia, memorials and dinners. The brutality of the “war on terror” and the U.S. wars of aggression are condemned both by the court of global public opinion and by international law, including the Geneva Conventions and the Convention against Torture.

People of conscience must insist on accountability for the actions of U.S. officials.
