You're outraged at the bigotry, hatred and murder that is being whipped up against black people, the LGBTQ community, women, immigrants, and Muslims.

You see how politics-as-usual fuels a brutal, bloody war on the world, dashing possibility for positive change in a world that desperately needs it. You recognize the need for a vehicle to resist a culture of greed and ignorance.

The change we need is not on the ballot. Neither candidate seeking to be Commander in Chief in 2016 will:

- stop targeted killing by the U.S. military;
- shut down or even trim the 1,100+ U.S. bases around the world;
- apologize or pay reparations to those countries destroyed by the so-called “war on terror”

It's a system problem, not just a politician problem. We reject the “choices” of this system:

A presidential candidate who plans to build a wall and deport 11 million... or the candidate of the party whose “Deporter in Chief”
